

Oklahomans For Life - LEGISLATIVE ALERT

April 17th, 2008

Senate and House successfully override Governor's veto of pro-life bill

The Oklahoma State Senate at 11 AM this morning voted to override Governor Brad Henry's veto of the pro-life bill, SB 1878. The Senate vote was 37-11 in favor of the override.

Thirty minutes later the Oklahoma House of Representatives also voted to override the Governor's veto. The House vote was 81-15.

The bill will now become law.

We will send out additional details later including how the members of the Senate and House voted on the motion to override the veto.

Thank you very much for your faithful and unwavering support for the unborn child.
